128 YEARS OF SERVICE

Leitner, Williams, Dooley & Napolitan, PLLC has grown into a defense firm of national reputation. The firm has expanded into a multi-state network of more than 100 attorneys spanning the Southeast and beyond from our offices in Chattanooga, Nashville, Knoxville, Memphis, Atlanta and Oxford. The firm's expansion into Mississippi and Georgia further strengthens our foothold in the Southeast.

The firm's growth has been the result of successful relationships with successful clients— Fortune 500 corporations, major companies, small businesses, and individuals. Our top priority in every relationship is to protect our client against the costs and risks of litigation. The firm is committed to providing counsel which is highly capable, efficient and cost-effective, with no compromise of our high standards of personalized service. Our attorneys are skilled at mediation and advocate alternative dispute resolution when it is in our client's best interest, standing ready at every step to dedicate the firm's experience and resources to the aggressive pursuit of courtroom rulings.

Our members believe that excellence in legal representation requires not only mastery of the law, but also knowledge of the businesses and industries in which our clients work every day. To this end, they regularly conduct seminars, help employers develop in-house protocols to protect against legal challenges, and provide up to date information on relevant decisions and complex changes in regulations. The firm's goal is to provide clients with strategies and resources to help resolve business challenges and prevent pitfalls.

With over 350 years of combined experience in litigation and mediation, our members have developed an excellent rapport with officials of administrative agencies and familiarity with their practices. The firm has attorneys who are admitted to practice law in all state and federal courts in Tennessee and Georgia, in the state courts of Alabama, Arkansas, Florida, Kentucky, Mississippi, North Carolina, and Virginia, in the Fifth, Sixth, and Eleventh Courts of Appeals and in the United States Supreme Court. Over the years the firm has developed networks of expert witnesses and medical providers whose testimony gives valued guidance to courts and juries.

The firm is proud to be associated with the many professional and honorary organizations which have recognized our members. These include the American College of Trial Lawyers, American Board of Trial Advocates, Best Lawyers in America, National Board of Trial Advocacy, Federation of Defense and Corporate Counsel, Defense Research Institute, International Association of Defense Counsel, Trial Lawyers of America and the Tennessee and Georgia Defense Lawyers Association. We have also been awarded with an "AV" rating, the highest issued by Martindale Hubbell. Our attorneys participate in our local communities through bar association memberships, through service on local government commissions, on the boards of private schools and hospitals, and with charitable organizations such as the American Heart Association, BigBrothers BigSisters, and the Boy Scouts of America.

AREAS OF PRACTICE

Our members believe that a law firm is strongest when its members excel in particular fields, enabling the firm as a whole to use its strength to the greatest service of clients. While not claiming certification in any given area of the law, the firm emphasizes the following areas of practice:

INSURANCE DEFENSE

Our national reputation as a leading insurance defense firm is based upon long-standing relationships with industry leaders. We defend insureds and self-insureds in all types of litigation. Our attorneys regularly counsel clients on insurance matters including complex coverage disputes and are frequently invited to conduct seminars for insurance adjusters, human resource professionals, in-house counsel and executives on all aspects of insurance representation and corporate concerns.

PRODUCT LIABILITY

We represent Fortune 500 corporations, mid-sized companies and small businesses in individual and class action product liability suits. Our recent clients include manufacturers of pharmaceuticals, automobiles, aircraft and asbestos. Talented attorneys in each of our six offices are experienced in product liability litigation, enabling us to utilize counsel with local expertise and to create a network of connections with expert witnesses.

PROFESSIONAL LIABILITY

Our firm's professional liability clients represent a wide variety of industries. In the healthcare field, we represent physicians, nurses, pharmacists, hospitals and hospital administrators, as well as both skilled and intermediate care facilities in nursing home liability cases. Clients from other professions include attorneys, architects, engineers, insurance agents and brokers. As skilled negotiators and mediators, our attorneys have earned a reputation for aggressively pursuing our clients' interests in mediation, at trial, and at the appellate level.

LABOR & EMPLOYMENT LAW

Our attorneys have years of experience in litigating matters related to termination of employment, wages, hours, benefits, union issues, job safety, civil rights, retaliatory discharge, COBRA and ERISA claims. We are also experienced in employment contracts, Labor Board complaints, and employment discrimination litigation, including all Title VII liabilities, Americans with Disabilities Act matters, Equal Employment Opportunity Commission investigations and wage and hour matters. We place high priority upon keeping our clients up to date on changes in employment law, realizing that many lawsuits can be avoided with sound counsel.

WORKERS' COMPENSATION

Workers' compensation issues which we handle for numerous clients involve a broad range of industries. We counsel employers and in-house counsel on protocols which deter litigation; when disputes arise, we work for the most favorable and cost-effective resolutions. Our understanding of the law and of how regulatory bodies work, along with our network of expert witnesses and medical providers, are the hinges upon which cases are favorably resolved. We have successfully represented our clients before government and disciplinary boards including the Department of Health, Environmental Protection Agency, Occupational Safety and Health Commission, Equal Employment Opportunity Commission, Tennessee Department of Labor, and Georgia State Board of Workers' Compensation.

HEALTHCARE DEFENSE

Our attorneys represent numerous participants in the healthcare industry, including hospitals, long-term care facilities, physicians, pharmacists, nurses, pharmaceutical companies and medical device manufacturers. Our attorneys litigate in state and federal courts, and also represent regulated industries before local, state and federal agencies.

TRANSPORTATION LAW

The firm represents interstate and intrastate transportation companies as well as a major Class 1 railroad. While our emphasis is on accident litigation and the defense of cargo claims, the firm also advises carriers on issues relating to employment and environmental matters. Our attorneys are members of industry organizations including the Transportation Lawyers Association, the Transportation Loss Prevention and Security Association, the Transportation groups of the American Law Firm Association and the Defense Research Institute, and the Commercial Transportation Litigation Committee of the American Bar Association, and National Association of Railroad Trial Counsel.

ENVIRONMENTAL LAW

We represent manufacturers, transporters, users and generators of hazardous waste and materials, litigating large toxic and hazardous waste claims and handling complex insurance coverage disputes which frequently arise over the costs associated with clean up and pollution liability exclusions.

CONSTRUCTION LAW

We represent the country's largest on-your-lot homebuilder, as well as several other residential and commercial builders and contractors. Our attorneys have tried numerous construction cases involving claims into the millions of dollars. We have experience in cases involving construction design defects, negligent construction and mold and mildew, as well as insurance coverage disputes involving construction claims.

ALTERNATIVE DISPUTE RESOLUTION

Our attorneys are skilled in mediation and arbitration. Alternative dispute resolution is frequently the best route to preserving our clients' resources and reconciling relationships, whether business or personal in nature. The reputation of our attorneys as aggressive litigators often leads to optimal results, enabling us to reach fair settlements which are in favor of our clients. When settlement is not possible, we stand ready to pursue our clients' interests at trial and through all available appeal processes.

Additional Areas of Practice

With diverse backgrounds, strong educational records and years of experience, our attorneys are capable across many areas of trial practice, appellate advocacy, and business and personal consulting. The following list of additional practice areas does not imply certification of specialization, but rather indicates significant experience on the part of more than one of our attorneys in the practice of:
